WOLF & BROWN LAW OFFICES NAMES ATTORNEY MATTHEW, J. BROWN, ESQ.
AS A PARTNER OF THE FIRM

Matthew J. Brown, Esq., the VA-accredited attorney for the Veterans department, has been with the firm since 2017.

CHERRY HILL (NJ) – “I am very pleased to welcome Matthew as a new partner of the firm.”, said partner and owner Michael Brown. “Since rejoining Wolf & Brown and taking over our Veteran’s department, he has continued to impress with solid judgment, continued growth, and a nuanced and pragmatic approach to the law. This is a tremendous asset to our clients and an invaluable addition to our firm as we continue to strengthen our litigation practice.”, he added. “This helps strengthen our ability to provide the highest quality services to our clients.”

Matthew graduated with a Juris Doctorate from Rutgers School of Law-Camden in 2015. His practice focuses solely on claims and appeals before the Veterans Administration for disability compensation and dependency and indemnity compensation. Matt recently secured a favorable decision and settlement for a Vietnam-era veteran who has been denied service-connection for more than 50 years.

“I am ecstatic to be a partner at Wolf & Brown - not only to continue to provide quality representation to our veteran clients, but also to the firm as a whole.”, said Matthew. “It has been an honor and pleasure to represent those who sacrifice for our country, and build that relationship with our Veterans.”, he added. “I look forward to continuing to work with our them and navigate the bureaucracy that is the Veterans Administration.”
